What Do We Stand For?

The question can rightly be asked, today: "What does the United States stand for in the world?"

Millions of people in far away countries must wonder. Those in eastern Europe who have had the courage and fortitude to resist Communism, which has taken over their countries, must wonder.

They see us aiding Communist Poland. And this is not just aid in foodstuffs, as some would have us believe. This aid has totaled hundreds of millions of dollars over a period of several years. The State Department gave the impression, recently, when Congress for one day cut out all U. S. aid to Communist countries, that only small surplus food shipments had gone to Poland. This was misleading.

Of course, we have been sending hundreds of millions in aid to Communist Yugoslavia far longer than three or four years.

And early this month it was learned that our government was about to resume its large aid program to Argentina.

The present regime is an Army dictatorship, which recently dismissed the President, and then the elected-parliament.

Likewise, we are backing a dictator in South Vietnam hated by most of the people (the Communist being only one of the opposing factions). The Reds will benefit by this, perhaps winning the vast majority on their side, as a result.

For many years the United States stood forcefully for freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom of the press, the right to vote — democracy — for all. The world knew exactly where we stood. One cannot imagine Theodore Roosevelt, for instance, sending millions of U. S. taxpayer-dollars to Poland, Yugoslavia, Fascist Spain, Cuba, Argentina or any dictatorship which suppresses liberty and freedom in the Far East, or elsewhere.

It is hard for the people of the world today to know just what the United States stands for. If so, how can we explain to the peoples impressed, imprisoned and persecuted by dictators why we are aiding these dictators?

Since we are certain to lose in every country where we sponsor fascism, or dictatorship, in the long run, it would be better for us to follow a forthright policy and support the champions of freedom and democracy everywhere, even if temporary losses make it seem "expedient" to back this or that dictator. Our present "expedient" policy is costing the country its traditional reputation as the hope for the New World for the suppressed people everywhere.

Claxton Paper Supports Sanders

(From The Claxton Enterprise, Claxton, Ga.)

We have studied closely the records, the platforms and the men. We have talked with both major candidates. We have talked with people who make up part of the citizenry of our state.

We endorse the candidacy of Carl Sanders for Governor.

We respect the opinion of others who differ with us, that is the right of every man in our democratic government. But we can not stand idly by in this campaign without voicing an opinion. There is more at stake than a political race.

Mr. Griffin asks that we overlook the repeated charges of graft and corruption in his administration with the simple statement that "nothing has been proved against him in court." And he intimates that there is some in every administration.

We do not consider that sufficient cause to repeat an administration of that type. The people of Georgia do not have to accept a substitute for honesty and integrity; they need no explanation.

On the other hand — integration and reapportionment — have as much faith in Carl Sanders possibly more than Mr. Griffin. The test of leadership is not how loud you holler, nor how much dust you raise — but in where we are when the dust settles, and the tumult dies.

Under our system, often the test is "what can be done for our country," and under this questionable virtue we have equally as much faith in Mr. Sanders' ability and willingness to help Evans County.

On one other issue — taxes — we have Griffin's record to show that he did not keep his promise, and that he cannot be trusted to keep it a second time. His philosophy of government is "raise the money so we can spend it" — a poor fiscal policy, at best.

If our stand requires that we "explain" Mills B. Lane, Martin Luther King, Ralph McGill and others then by the same token we require that Marvin "explain" Cheney Griffin, Red Williams, The Klan, The Columbians, the American Nazis and other people who may espouse some of his philosophy of government. Neither candidate can "explain" the dreams of his opponent.

In conclusion, we know not what others may do, and we have fought for the privilege of every man voting as he wishes — but we endorse the candidacy of Carl Sanders as the next Governor of our state.

TEN YEARS AGO
From the Bulloch Times Thursday, July 10, 1952
Statesboro and Bulloch county will be ready for the opening of the tobacco market on Monday, July 21.

From the market point of view, Statesboro will still hold its position of the most floor space of any market in the state since the New Statesboro Warehouse organization has increased its floor space to 140,000 square feet.

The first District Democratic Congressional nominating convention met here in Statesboro this morning at 10:30 for the purpose of naming the Honorable Prince H. Preston as the Democratic nominee from the First District to the 83rd Congress.

Miss Ida Long Rogers, a 1941 graduate of Wesleyan College and registrar of the Norfolk extension of the College of William and Mary and Virginia Polytechnic Institute, will come to Georgia Teachers College in September as dean of women.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
From the Bulloch Times July 9, 1942
Rev. H. B. Thrasher, former pastor of Statesboro Methodist church, died within the week at his home in California.

The First Baptist church of Statesboro will dedicate its new educational building next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock; speaker will be Rev. O. C. Gilbert, editor of Christian Index.

A dinner in the club of the Statesboro Junior and Senior Chamber of Commerce, Rotary and Lions will unite in a joint club dinner will be held at Rushing Hotel on Tuesday evening of next week.

Rose Brunson, chairman, has named a committee from each district in the county to raise $1,250 as a fund to provide entertainment for our soldiers under sponsorship of the United Service Organization.

Reggie Rushing, in the employ of United Air Lines, made non-stop flight from Miami, Fla., to Dayton, Ohio, and back over the Bulloch on the trip, according to letter received by the Times from him in Chicago.

THIRTY YEARS AGO
From the Bulloch Times July 7, 1922
Ladies' night banquet for Chamber of Commerce Friday evening was a delightful occasion; vocal quartet by Roy Taylor, W. E. McDougald, E. L. Barnes and Sam Franklin; Guy H. Wells directed the program.

Will be wrestling match at Guards Armory Wednesday night, July 13; Tom Malley vs. Irish Jack Sullivan; Lewis Newsome vs. "Sweetie" Hanson; admission 50 cents plus tax.

Social events: P.T.A. celebration of Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Guy H. Wells in honor of Mrs. K. H. Hankerson, state president; Miss Annie Smith entertained the Tuesday Bridge Club at her home on North Main street; Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. W. E. McDougald won high score prize and Mrs. Arthur Turner lost.

Miss Theodora Donaldson was hostess at a party Friday afternoon honoring Miss Alice Allen, Mrs. Atlanta, and Miss Lillian Pailgrowing. Motor boats may be rented by the hour or day and a number of larger boats are available for charter.

There are many areas with picnic facilities and there is a wide selection of choice restaurants nearby.

The rock bound will have a field day. An abundance of all common rocks and minerals may be found in Rabun and several of the more rare minerals as well. Horseres are available for riding over the trails which crisscross the mountains banked with rhododendron, which blooms in July, laurel, fern and myriads of other wild flowers.

Cast care aside. Load the family in the car and "get away from it" in the congenial surroundings of Rabun. Your neighborhood service station dealer will assist you in selecting the best route to Rabun, shortest to a new rest for living.

What is the use of the intelligence if you do not know what it is?

Traveling Through Georgia

By Charles E. Hooper

Up in Rabun County, tucked between the lofty peaks of Rabun Bald and Standing Indian, lies an unspoiled region of perfectly deep, rushing stream, mountain, magnificent waterfalls and rambling lakes. What a wonderful way to escape the dull routine and the bustle of crowds!

What a tranquilizing effect! That is Rabun, the old Cherokee country — with twisting trails and safe motor roads (making many waterfalls, high cliffs and accessible) and where azean literally cover the area like clouds of color, recalling the festivals of the primitive Indians.

The creek banks and cover, the hill tops, the cliffs, the draughts are on the verge of a riot — of forest blooms, with their soft, restful hues of pink.

That is Rabun, the high country, delightful and beautiful and incorporating mountain air and chilly and sun-drenched hills. There's the famous Tallulah Gorge, surrounded in beauty and depth only by the Grand Canyon.

That is Rabun, one of the finest fishing areas in the country. There are many fishing camps along the shore of the five lakes and mountain streams provide excellent trout fishing.

Lake Burton, for instance, abounds in beautiful, big trout. There is good fishing for rainbow and brown trout. Trout are consistently taken from Burton weighing up to eight pounds.

All game fish are in good supply in Burton, including yellow perch, but the perch are stunted and small. Walleye have been introduced in Burton and large brown trout have been stocked, in addition to the native fish.

And the trout fishing is good the year around. Best lures are deep-running spoons and spinners, fished slowly. Bass are hitting well now and will continue through the month. Then they'll be at it again in the fall.

That is Rabun County, home also to Lakes Nacoochee, Tallulah and Tugalo, all surrounded by high mountains and all have excellent facilities for motor boating and fishing. Motor boats may be rented by the hour or day and a number of larger boats are available for charter.

There are many areas with picnic facilities and there is a wide selection of choice restaurants nearby.

Miss Glenda Harden Becomes Bride Of Mr. Anderson

The Hubert Methodist Church was the scene Sunday afternoon, July 1, at 4:30 o'clock, of the marriage of Miss Glenda Harden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Anderson, to Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Anderson.

The wedding scene had a background of palms and fern trees, with a large arrangement of three shades of asters on a lovely white column, flanked by four seven-branched candelabra. Trailing ivy entwined the altar.

The wedding music was provided by Mrs. W. D. Lee, pianist, and Mrs. Edwin Akins, soloist, who sang, "Because," "Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride given in marriage by her father, was attired in white, with a train of tulle and lace, with a square neckline and a high collar. The bride's dress was of tulle and lace, with a square neckline and a high collar.

Immediately following the ceremony a lovely reception was given by the parents of the bride in a social hall of the church. The bride's table was overlaid with a madeline linen, cut-work cloth, with single decorated layers. The four-tiered cake was decorated with white and aqua icing and miniature orchids. On the serving table the punch bowl was decorated with native fruits, and arrangements of magnolia leaves, palms and summer flowers completed the decoration.

Mrs. M. P. Martin, Jr., Mrs. James Davis and Mrs. Harold Hogan were assisted in serving by Mrs. Ronald Starnes of Savannah, Miss Sandra Williams, Mrs. Wallace DeWitt of Athens, Mrs. H. L. Neal of Douglas, Miss Mary Martin and Miss Sherry Lott of Nevils, Mrs. Horace Knight at the wedding cake, and the bride's register was kept by Mrs. La Wayne Anderson.

The guests were introduced by Mrs. Anne Nix, assisted by Mrs. W. D. Lee, Mrs. Frank Benton of Savannah directed the wedding.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a dress of imported Lillie Shaw, in summer navy. The short jacket had a portrait neckline and three-quarter length sleeves, trimmed with a bow of the same material. Her shoes, hat and bag were summer navy and white, and she wore the orchid from her necklace.

Mrs. and Mrs. Anderson will make their home in Florida, and at the beginning of the fall term of school each one will be a member of the faculty. The Thomas Central High School.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. D. Anderson were hosts Saturday night, June 30, at their home at 111 Park Avenue, where a party was given for the bride and groom. The party was given for the bride and groom.
